Principles of charging business packages and current accounts:

Products and services included in business packages:

- Electronic account statements in monthly frequency. Weekly or daily frequency is only possible if either ČSOB Internetbanking 24, ČSOB BusinessBanking 24 or ČSOB BusinessBanking Lite is activated.
- Electronic account statement sent to natural persons – entrepreneurs and legal entities is a free of charge supplementary service and does not serve as a tax document.
- Natural persons – entrepreneurs and legal entities can have their account statements delivered by mail, by mail + electronically, or to a P.O.BOX + electronically, while the fee charged depends on the frequency of mail statements delivery. This does not have to correspond with the frequency of electronically delivered account statements.

Transactions and charging of fees of business packages and current accounts:

- Among transactions included in the price of business packages, under payment received is considered a payment received in EUR currency within ČSOB Slovak Republic and SEPA payment received in accordance with its definition in General terms and conditions.
- Among transactions included in the price of the business package, under payment sent is considered a payment sent in

EUR currency within ČSOB Slovak Republic and received SEPA payment in accordance with its definition in General terms and conditions, while electronic payment entered via ČSOB Linka 24 service is not considered an electronic payment.

- If debit card payments are included in the business package, e.g. all cash withdrawals or debit card payments, it applies that in the price of business package are included such transactions made by all issued debit cards linked to a particular business package.
- Services and transactions not included in the packages or used beyond the content of business package Bank charges under the standard fees specified in the Pricing list.
- Business Package/Current Account maintenance fee and transactions charges are charged from the package/account on the last Saturday of a calendar month.
- Charges for transactions on a client's account made in the period between the last Saturday of the calendar month and the last banking day in the month are charged in the following calendar month.
- Bank does not charge a Business Package/Current Account maintenance fee in the month in which the account is opened (this does not apply to changes of type of current account/business package). Charges for transactions made in the month in which a business package is opened, are charged in the following month.

Note:

Standard exchange (renewal) of qualified/commercial certificate if the exchange (renewal) of a qualified/commercial certificate in the course of the last 30 days of validity of the previous certificate.

Extraordinary exchange (renewal) of qualified/commercial certificate is the exchange (renewal) of a qualified/commercial certificate within the period longer than 30 days prior to the expiry of the previous certificate.

Exchange (renewal) of certificate is done directly in ČSOB Internetbanking 24/ČSOB BusinessBanking Lite service application. The certificate exchange (renewal) cannot be executed in a branch.

Commercial certificate is always issued in a branch, and it is used by the client not using the ČSOB Internetbanking 24/ČSOB BusinessBanking Lite yet.

Re-issue – in such cases the client may be charged by a separate additional fee:

- if the client has not managed to renew the original certificate via application prior to its expiry,
- if the client has lost/destroyed the original certificate,
- if the original certificate is still valid, but instead of renewing it via ČSOB Internetbanking 24/ČSOB BusinessBanking Lite application, the client comes to a branch to have it renewed.

The prices apply to ČSOB clients, while, in case of certificates, the client means a natural person with authorization for using of Internetbanking 24, BusinessBanking 24 and BusinessBanking Lite.

ČSOB Flexims – only commercial certificates are issued for this service. For the purpose of charging, the exchange (renewal) of commercial certificate (extended validity for further period) means issue of commercial certificate.

9. GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1	In case of current accounts in foreign currencies the fixed fees are converted applying the current Foreign Exchange rate (exchange rate of the NBS foreign exchange market) on the day of fee charging.
9.2	In addition to the fees and remunerations specified in the Price list, the Bank charges any eventual costs charged by foreign and domestic banks or by any other organisations generated in relation to the transaction executed upon the client's request, to the client's account, unless it is agreed otherwise in the particular case. In case of any additional costs of the foreign bank first after crediting the payment in favour of the client, the client's account is debited with the costs.
9.3	The bank is authorised to charge remuneration in the amount and in a way determined according to the agreement with the client for the services not specified in the Price list, with regard to the time necessary for execution of the required transaction and the risk rate assumed by the Bank.
9.4	The fees and remunerations for banking services are fixed pursuant to the relevant contract on banking transaction, General business terms and conditions, as well as separate business terms and conditions for the particular transaction, usually in the currency of account, to the debit or credit of which the particular transaction is executed.
9.5	Relevant VAT in the amount set by the Act on value added tax is added to the fees and remunerations according to this Price list.
9.6	The Bank charges remuneration for foreign currency conversion in the amount of difference between the exchange rate of FX purchase and sale, or eventually percentage remuneration specified in the relevant item of the Price list.
9.7	The rates with domestic banks and with branches of foreign banks operating in the SR can be agreed on contractual basis.
9.8	In relation to foreign banks, the Bank charges remunerations for particular transaction types pursuant to a special Price list.
9.9	Fees fixed for new products and services are valid from the day of provision thereof by the bank.
9.10	The Bank charges once a month (the last Sturday of the month) the fees for business package/current account maintained for the client on the day of fee charging, namely in the amount and frequency pursuant to the currently valid Price list.
9.11	This Price list for natural persons – entrepreneurs and legal entities replaces the Price list for natural persons – entrepreneurs and legal entities expiring on the day of effect of this Price list for natural persons – entrepreneurs and legal entities. This Price list comes into force and effect on 1 March 2014.
