Interest Rate and Repayment, Fees

6. Drawdowned and unpaid – up credit is rated with an interest rate agreed in the Agreement. If it is not possible to specify in concept agreed in the Agreement interest rate because of its temporary not mentioning in the information media and if the reason for replacing the Reference Interest Rate set out below has not occurred, interest shall bear at a floating rate consisting of the bid quotes average (found out by the Bank) on the inter-bank currency market at least three console banks, always two business days before the first day of the relevant period of fixation, respectively partial credit period and of a margin (surcharge) at the fixed amount agreed in the Agreement. In case that it is not possible to determine interest rate even in this manner due to temporary absence of bid quote on the inter-bank currency market, the credit shall bear interest at a interest rate with temporary fixing, consisting of the interest rate in an amount quoted by the Bank and of a margin (surcharge) at the fixed rate specified in the Agreement. In an event of fixed interest rates when an amount of a margin (surcharge) is not specified in the Agreement, in both cases used margin (surcharge) will be in an amount included in relevant fixed interest rate agreed between the Bank and the Client. The Client undertakes to pay the Bank interest calculated on the base of in this manner defined interest rate or untimely to pay his obligations of the afforded credit within 30 days after the Bank's notice delivery in an amount of the established interest rate (in an event of untimely credit repayment afterwards for a period before untimely credit repayment occurs, is valid interest rate found out by the quotation of the Bank). In the event that:
 - (i) the Reference Interest Rate permanently ceases to be available (e.g. the Reference Interest Rate ceases to exist), or
 - (ii) it becomes unlawful to use the Reference Interest Rate (e.g. an administrator of the Reference Interest Rate withdraws its request for the licence to use the Reference Interest Rate; or the Reference Interest Rate or its administrator is deleted from the relevant register kept by ESMA), or
 - (iii) the methodology to calculate the Reference Interest Rate materially changes within the meaning of the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council (EU)

- 2016/1011 on indices used as benchmarks in financial instruments and financial contracts or to measure the performance of investment funds, in the view of the administrator of such Reference Interest Rate (e.g. geographic, economic or sectorial scope of the Reference Interest Rate considerably changes), or
- (iv) if relevant authorities announce that such Reference Interest Rate is no longer representative, such a Reference Interest Rate (hereinafter simply “Relevant Reference Interest Rate”) shall be replaced by other Replacement Reference Interest Rate (hereinafter simply “Replacement Reference Interest Rate”).

The Replacement Reference Interest Rate shall be such a Reference Interest Rate which:

- (a) is recommended by the relevant authorities (including any working group constituted or endorsed by them) for the replacement of the Relevant Reference Interest Rate;
- (b) if it is not possible to proceed under (a) above, the Reference Interest Rate shall be deemed to be the interest rate used in similar transactions in the same currency with equivalent or comparable terms and conditions in relation to the Relevant Reference Interest Rate and the Bank shall determine the Replacement Reference Interest Rate in good faith, taking into account the evolving or prevailing market standard at the time;
- c) if not possible to proceed according to letter (b) above, is determined by the Bank, in good faith, so that is the most comparable to the Relevant Reference Interest Rate.

In order to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable, any economic prejudice or benefit to the Parties as a result of the replacement of the Relevant Reference Interest Rate by the Replacement Reference Interest Rate, the Replacement Reference Interest Rate shall be adjusted with the Adjustment Spread (hereinafter the “Adjustment Spread”). In relation to the replacement of the Relevant Reference Interest Rate by the Replacement Reference Interest Rate such Adjustment Spread shall be:

- (a) the Adjustment Spread recommended by the relevant authorities (including any working group constituted or endorsed by them);
- (b) if not possible to proceed according to letter (a) above, the Adjustment Spread that the Bank determines in good faith is considered an evolving or then prevailing market practice in similar transactions;
- (c) if not possible to proceed according to letter (b) above, the Adjustment Spread that the Bank, acting in good faith, determines to be appropriate. The Bank shall promptly inform the Client on the replacement of the Relevant Reference Interest Rate by the Replacement Reference Interest Rate, including the Adjustment Spread, along with the effectiveness of the changes in relation to the relevant Agreements.

For the avoidance of doubt, and unless otherwise agreed in the Agreement, if such Agreement includes an interest rate of 1-, 2-, 3, 4-, 5-, 6-, 7-, 8-, 9- or 10-year interest rate SWAP, it shall be considered to be the Reference Interest Rate 1Y, 2Y, 3Y, 4Y, 5Y, 6Y, 7Y, 8Y, 9Y or 10Y ICE Swap Rate EUR 1100 respectively, administered by ICE Benchmark Administration Limited, which is listed in the relevant register kept by ESMA, or the Reference Interest Rate is listed in the relevant ESMA register.

This precision shall not constitute a change in the interest rate, nor shall it constitute a replacement of the interest rate.

In an exceptional case, if it is not possible to determine the Replacement Reference Interest Rate in the manner described above, the Bank is entitled to declare that all the Bank's receivables from the Agreement become due.

7. The Bank is in agreed due days entitled to cash in relevant partial payment and/or owed sum in an amount agreed in the Agreement or resulting from the Agreement of the Client's account/accounts defined in the Agreement.
